

IOT Enabled Soil Moisture probe

IOT Enabled Soil Moisture probe: We have developed soil moisture sensor based on fringing electric field (FEF) technology to measure the soil moisture in the crop field and optimize the irrigation process. This technology provides good accuracy at required measurement range of soil moisture content and is also cost effective. The probe can measure soil moisture at multiple depths.

